SENATOR M. A. HANNA

Ohioan to Open Republican Campaign in Illinois in September.

Tracy, the Desperado, Has Vanished—Gaines Acquitted at Carrollton Today.

KENTUCKY PRISONER ESCAPES

SENATOR HANNA TO OPEN.

Washington, July 10.—It is arranged that Senator Hanna shall open the Republican campaign in Illinois on September 24, and is expected that Secretary Root will speak for the administration on that day and occasion, although it may be decided later to have Secretary Knox make his statement on the proposed trust statement, which is to be an exposition of the president's plan to urge congress to curb the trusts by very stringent legislation. Attorney General Knox has some ideas as to the best way to regulate the trusts and draw their fangs, which it is believed will prove very efficacious.

GAINES WAS ACQUITTED.

Carrollton, Ky., July 10.—The examining trial of Perry B. Gaines, charged with shooting and wounding with intent to kill Louis Harris, resulted in his acquittal. On account of the high standing of the parties and the peculiar circumstances of the case, much feeling has been aroused. By order of the court, all attending the trial were searched before entering the court room.

TRACY HAS VANISHED.

Seattle, Wash., July 10.—Tracy, the outlaw, has to all intents and purposes disappeared from the face of the earth, and it is supposed will be heard from no more until he enters another home or holds some one else up. Rumors of the wildest description concerning the convict's whereabouts are flying about on all sides.

PRISONER ESCAPED.

Owingsville, July 10.—Deputy Sheriff A. N. Crooks, who went to Chicago Monday night to bring George A. Clark, the Salt Lick bank swindler to this place for trial, telegraphed this morning from Lindsale, Ind., that Clark had jumped from the window of the train while the train was in motion and made his escape.

CLOSED TEMPORARILY.

SHIP CARPENTERS AND CAULKERS OBJECTED TO EVANSVILLE MEN.

The marine ways are still idle. The tug Albee Harr was brought here from Evansville to be placed on the ways, and it seems the local caulkers and ship carpenters objected to working on it because two Evansville men who are not members of the union were brought here to work on it. The ways will remain idle until some agreement is made in the matter.

STRIKE IS SETTLED

Freight Handlers Will Return to Work in Chicago.

The Strikers Agree to Accept Terms Offered Them on July 1—Railroads Win.

AGREEMENT RATIFIED TODAY

Chicago, July 10.—The strike of the freight handlers is virtually settled. Meetings of the strikers will be held today to ratify the action taken last night.

By the terms of the settlement, the strikers accept the schedule of wages offered them by the railroads July 1. This schedule was emphatically refused by the strikers at the time it was made. It offered an average increase of 20 per cent for all classes of labor connected with the Freight Handlers' union. The demands of the men would have made an average increase of about 20 per cent. The railroads at the time of offering the increase on July 1, said that under no circumstances would they recognize the union of the freight handlers to the extent of allowing the officers of the organization to make terms for the men with the officers of the railroads by which they were employed. This was one of the chief reasons for the strike, the men insisting that the union should be fully recognized. The railroads have won a complete victory on this point. The attitude of the roads toward the Freight Handlers' union is the same as that maintained toward all local organizations of railroad men. The freight handlers demanded something that no other organization or railroad employee in Chicago had asked and the managers announced that under no circumstances would they agree to this.

The proposition finally was made that the matter of an agreement with the railroads should be left with Presidents Curran and Howman with full power to act. A meeting was then arranged with a committee of the general managers of the railroads, and the result was that President Curran agreed to accept the basis of increase offered by the railroads July 1. The action of the teamsters was a potent factor in settling the strike. They took strong issue with the freight handlers, and intimidated very plainly that no assistance could be expected from them, inasmuch as the freight handlers had struck against the advice of the Chicago Federation of Labor.

PAY UP OR GO DRY.

WILL SHUT OFF WATER SUPPLY UNLESS A BILL IS PAID.

Boston, June 10.—The directors of the Helena water works, of Helena, Mont., the controlling stock of which is held in Boston, have voted to shut off the public water service in that city after this month unless the city government pays the bill for water supplied to date, amounting to $73,000.

There has been some litigation over the bills rendered to the city of Helena, and the owners of the company, after consulting attorneys here, have sent formal notice to the city authorities of Helena that service will be suspended unless there is an immediate settlement. The fire underwriters have also been notified. The shutting off of the water would leave the city without sewerage facilities or fire protection.

Miss Susanna Jorgenson is expected today from Princeton on a visit to Mrs. Jetta Hobson of North Sixth.

THE CONTRACT LET

New Telephone Exchange Will Be Established in Paducah at Once

Directors of the People's Company Met and Arranged for Work to Begin.

EXCHANGE SITE TO BE CHOSEN

This morning the directors of the Independent Telephone Co. met in the office of President R. E. Ashbrook on Broadway and let the contracts for the interior and outside work on the system.

Mr. Ashbrook said that he did not care to give the names of the contractors securing the work nor the price for the contract but would state that the work would be begun immediately and that the city would soon have a complete and up-to-date telephone system. It is understood that several different firms secured the contracts and no one firm got the entire work. The main point of contention in the company relative to the contract was whether the work should be done by the company or let to outsiders.

Mr. Ashbrook furthermore stated that he had an option on two sites for the central exchange and would close a deal for the purchase of one of the two pieces of property this afternoon late.

"We will push the work, now that the move has been well started, and will suffer no delay whatever it can be helped," Mr. Ashbrook said. "We want to give to the city an up-to-date telephone system and intend to fulfill our promise."

CHIEF OPERATOR.

MISS LOU BRIGHT ARRIVES TO GO WITH THE EAST TENNESSEE.

Miss Lou Bright has accepted the position of chief operator of the East Tennessee Telephone exchange in the city, succeeding Mrs. Phelps. She came here from Union City, where she was chief operator for several months, and previous to that was in Knoxville. She has been with the company for eight or nine years and comes highly recommended. The company now has a large corps of operators in Paducah, owing to the rapid increase in its business.

A NEW ENTERPRISE

Articles of Incorporation for a New Laundry Filed Here Today.

Mr. Jehu Rock Elected President—Mr. C. E. Gridley General Manager.

BEGIN BUSINESS SEPT. 1

Articles of incorporation for Paducah Laundry Co. were filed in County Clerk Graham's office last evening, and insure Paducah another big enterprise. The capital stock of the concern is to be $10,000, and it expects to be in operation by September 1.

This morning the following officers were elected: George Rock, president; Tom Sisson, vice president; Dennis Moequet, secretary, and Mrs. O. M. Gridley treasurer. These same compose the board of directors, together with Messrs. George Langstaff and C. E. Gridley. Mr. Gridley was also chosen general manager.

The new laundry will be equipped with a $10,000 plant, and will probably be located at Fifth and Jefferson across from the Baptist church. The officers are now trying to get a twenty year lease on the property, which cannot be sold, and if they succeed will put up their own building. Otherwise they have another building or two in view.

Mr. Gridley, who is to be general manager, was formerly proprietor of the New City Steam Laundry and has had several years experience in the business. The new concern will have a capacity of about $1500 or $2000 worth of work a week.

The following are the stockholders and the shares each holds: John Rock, 10; O. E. Gridley, 10; O. M. Gridley, 10; A. Alberti, 5; George W. Walters, 10; T. M. Sisson, 5; O. E. Jennings, 1; W. A. Martin, 1; C. W. Emery, 1; John Mollenry, 5; Barry and Heuneberger, 2; H. H. Loving, 8; O. M. Gridley, 10; George Langstaff, 5; A. T. Bohannon, 1; Mrs. M. Riegleberger, 1; J. D. Moequet, 5, and Jacob Weil 10.

NEW CORPORATIONS.

Frankfort, July 10.—The Commonwealth Oil and Gas company of Barbourville, with a capital stock of $3,000, and the Paducah Laundry, with $10,000 capital stock, filed articles of incorporation here today.

A BOLD BURGLARY

Residence of Baker Humphreys Entered By Thieves This Morning.

Between $200 and $300 worth of Property Stolen While the Family Was Absent.

AN ATTEMPTED HOLD UP ALSO

Last night burglars entered the residence of Mr. W. J. Humphreys, the proprietor of the Broadway bakery, at 308 North Ninth street, and secured jewelry, silverware and money to the amount of between $250 and $300.

Mr. Humphreys left his home at 11 o'clock in a cab with his family whom he sent to Danville, Ky., to visit, and returned at about 1:40. Upon entering his home he found the electric light in the front room burning brightly and knew that the house had been entered since his departure. He then went into the living room and found that all the drawers of the dresser and washstand had been pulled out and stacked one on top of the other in the middle of the floor. Hearing a noise in the rear of the house he ran to an adjoining room, secured his pistol and frightened the burglars, who were still in the house, away. He did not get to see them and does not know how many or whether they were white or colored. Mr. Humphreys then went to the Palmer house, secured an officer and returned to the house. He and the officer began search but had barely gotten into the house when a return was made by the thieves and Mr. Humphreys discovered one trying to get in again. Entrance had been effected through a side window and this is the method the man tried to use the second time. The officer jumped out of the window and fired at the flying man but the bullet took no effect and the burglar escaped. It is impossible to ascertain just how much was taken but the best estimate that can be made is that between $250 and $300 in jewelry, silverware and money, was secured. The officers have been given the case and are working hard on it today.

Mr. Humphreys said that he usually carried his pistol with him at night when he left the house but had failed to secure it last night when he needed it most.

An effort to hold up Bo Clark, a driver for the Palmer Transfer company, was nipped in the bud at an early hour this morning as he was on his way to the union depot with a cab full of passengers. In a dark portion of the street near the depot two negroes jumped out, and seized the horse. Clark shouted "Let go the horse," not knowing what to make of the men's action, and one of the men muttered something about "Let go, he's a policeman," and they ran into the woods. The supposition is that they intended to rob the driver, but seeing the brass buttons of his uniform supposed he was a policeman, and were frightened away.

It was thought last night that a burglar was in Mr. Bransford Clarke residence in the West End, and several of the neighbors assisted in a search for the supposed intruder, but failed to find him. It may have been a false alarm, but it is believed that the thief was frightened away.

IS NEARING ITS END

The Paducah Medical and Surgical Society to be no More.

In Its Stead, After August 13, Will Be an Organization Embracing the County.

HAS EXISTED FOR 30 YEARS

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the McCracken county medical society at Chiles' Springs yesterday. Several Paducah doctors were in attendance and reported an excellent meeting.

On the second Wednesday in August there will be another meeting of the doctors at that place, doctors from over the entire county are requested to be in attendance as this will be one of the most important meetings ever held and will do away with the Paducah Medical and Surgical society, an organization that has been in existence for the past 30 years. At the annual meeting of the American Medical association in Saratoga Springs several weeks ago an entirely new constitution was adopted affecting every society in the U. S. and the constitution has been accepted already by all the state medical societies, among them being Kentucky. In pursuance of this the medical society of Paducah will be a thing of the past after August 13. The object of this move is to bring all the societies nearer together and to draw the profession into one big body. The name "McCracken County Medical Society" will probably be retained for the organization, and will include not only the Paducah doctors but those of the county as well.

The Paducah Medical and Surgical society was founded some 30 years ago by Drs. O. A. Elliott, J. G. Brooks, Joe Thompson, deceased; Dr. Maxwell, deceased; Dr. R. Saunders and Dr. T. Rivers, deceased, and was then known as the Paducah Medical club. Later the name was changed to the Paducah Medical and Surgical society and has always been an excellent society. The doctors regret to see the organization absorbed but have to conform with the state society laws which are governed by the national constitution.

Dr. O. A. Elliott, one of the founders of the society, will tomorrow celebrate his 74th birthday. He has been practicing medicine for 50 years this spring and is one of the best known physicians in the city. He is well known throughout the state and bears an enviable reputation as a doctor. His many friends and colleagues will wish him many happy returns of the day. Although getting along in years Dr. Elliott moves about faster than a great many younger men. He carries a cane but uses it little, and then more from habit than from actual need.

FINGERS CAUGHT.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT TO OFFICER JOE WOODS' SON TODAY.

Master Charles Woods, the son of Officer Joe Woods, while playing with the workings of a music box at noon, got his fingers caught in the cogs of the main spring and badly chewed. Officer Tom Evitts heard the little fellow's screams from the police station and ran to his father's room over the Tully livery stable. The entire workings had to be taken apart before the boy's finger was released. The flesh was badly chewed but the injury is not serious.

NOT BEYOND BELIEF.

IF IT WERE NOT FOR PADUCAH INDOREMENT PEOPLE MIGHT BE SKEPTICAL.

No wonder people doubt! So many statements are made, statements indorsed by strangers, from people living in distant towns. Don't know them and can't see them.

Such indorsement has a hazy aspect. Paducah people want local proof. That's what we have here.

It's not beyond belief because it can be proven.

Read a local citizen's testimony. Mr. H. L. Blackford, of 615 Washington street, carpenter by trade, says: "It struck me when reading a notice about Doan's Kidney Pills that if they performed half what they promised they might cure my kidney complaint which annoyed me in the shape of backache. I went to DuBois and Co's drug store, got a box and commenced the treatment. If it had not benefited me I never would have bought a second, and if the second had not brought undoubted results I could not be induced to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to friends and acquaintances personally, much less publicly."

FORMS A LAW

PARTNERSHIP WITH JUDGE GREER.

Judge William Marble, of Princeton, Ky., has formed a law partnership with Judge W. D. Greer, and will arrive Monday to enter the latter's office. He is one of the best known attorneys in this end of the state, and has been special judge for Judge Nunn for the past several weeks while Judge Nunn is out prosecuting his canvass for judge of the court of appeals. Judge Greer is one of the most prominent of Paducah attorneys and for several years was in partnership with Judge W. M. Reed.

Mrs. Eliza Tolvert and niece, Miss Beattie Thompson of Elkton are guests of the family of Dr. S. B. Caldwell in the west end.

KING SETS THE DAY.

INSISTS UPON AN EARLY CORONATION DESPITE THE DOCTORS' ADVICE.

London, July 10—The news that the coronation of King Edward was to be held before the middle of August was published in America before it was known here. But the London Times and other papers this morning confirm the announcement. From the same excellent source it is learned today that the pressing forward of the coronation was due to the personal insistence of the king. His doctors were at first opposed to such an early date, but the king declined to agree to any other plans.

The doctors agree that it will be far better for King Edward to get through the turmoil of the coronation as soon as possible than to have it hanging over him for months. The king has determined not to break up the court at Buckingham palace until after the coronation. He may go on board his yacht for a few days' cruise, but he is more likely to remain in London till the affair is over and then take a prolonged holiday.

It was said at Buckingham palace tonight that King Edward's progress was in no way retarded.

WILL BUILD.

PADUCAH GUN CLUB PREPARES TO BUILD ITS NEW CLUB HOUSE.

The members of the Paducah Gun club last night met at Bronaugh's establishment on Broadway and appointed Mr. Ben Weille and Dr. P. H. Stewart a committee to secure bids at once on the new club house the club proposes to erect at once. The means of building the house was decided on, it being to assess each member $3 and thus raise $375, and borrow the remainder. Not more than $500, it is thought, will be needed.

The club house will be complete in every particular, and will have reception room, dining room and kitchen, locker and general utility. It will not be a fine structure, but will have every convenience, and will be something the club may well be proud of. It is hoped to have it completed by August 1.

The club last night appointed Messrs Bronaugh and Davis a committee to complete the tournament program.

OF THREE WARS

A TENNESSEE WOMAN WAS OF A FAMILY OF SOLDIERS.

Knoxville, Tenn., July 10—Mrs. Nancy Jones, widow of Darling Jones, a soldier of the Revolutionary war, died at her home near Jonesboro, Tenn., aged 86 years. Her maiden name was Hubbs. At the age of 16 she wedded G. Darling Jones, who was then 68 years. He died in 1848. Mrs. Jones at the time of her death was one of three women drawing pensions as widows of Revolutionary soldiers. Her husband at the age of 16 fought beside his father in a North Carolina regiment at the battle of King's Mountain against Ferguson's British troops. In the Civil war three sons of Nancy Jones fought in the Federal army. Louis Jones fought in company F, Eighth Tennessee cavalry, and William Jones fought in a Kentucky regiment. In 1898 Louis Jones, Jr., fought as a member of company K, Third Tennessee. When he returned home the members of the family circle were pensioners of three wars.

NEW MAN ARRIVES

NOT WANTED HERE NOW.

Mike Holden was arrested at Waycross, Ga., at the request of Paducah officers a day or two ago, but has been released. It seems he was sent $19 as fare to come to Paducah and play the piano at Vic Ballows's, and failed to come. He was then arrested but fixed the thing up, and was released by the sheriff on advices from Captain Henry Bailey.

THE PERFECT LIVER MEDICINE

Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years, and can cheerfully recommend it as the most perfect liver medicine, and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit, and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at DuBois, Kolb and Co.

COUNTY TEACHERS

Proceedings of Yesterday's Session at Massac This County.

Teachers Elected for the Various Magisterial Districts Yesterday Afternoon.

A VERY INTERESTING SESSION

The institute was opened promptly at 8:30 yesterday by Instructor J. S. Ragsdale.

A lesson on nature was given by Prof. J. S. Ragsdale which was both interesting and instructive. The regular program was then taken up.

Primary reading was fully discussed by Miss Lillie Rouse and Mrs. A. M. Ragsdale. Prof. W. H. Elliott then took up the subject of arithmetic and made quite an interesting talk.

After recess the following subjects were discussed by various members of the institute:

The timid child, the dull child, the over bright child. How to overcome improper home training, causes of brain fatigue in children and how best utilize the child's knowledge of nature when he enters school. The institute was then adjourned to meet at 1:30 p. m.

Wednesday afternoon—The institute was called together promptly at the stated hour by the instructor. The first business attended to was the election of officers for the county teachers' association of the different magisterial districts. The following were elected:

Fifth—Miss Ruth Harper, president; Mrs. Raney, vice president.

Sixth—W. T. Harrison, president; J. S. Ragsdale, vice president.

Seventh—James P. McQueen, president; Miss Ruby Miles, vice president.

Eighth—J. W. Smart, president; J. N. Holland, vice president. Prof. W. W. Morris, Sr., made quite a lengthy and spirited talk on the purpose of the association.

The first appearing on the program after recess was the subject of writing, discussed by Miss Langston and Prof. E. L. Simmons, followed by other teachers. The subject of geography was next introduced by Prof. J. A. Graham and Prof. Dow Craig. Other members of the institute took part in the discussion which made it very heated.

Several visitors were present in the afternoon. Interest very good considering the extreme warm weather.

The teachers appreciate Instructor J. S. Ragsdale's efforts to make the work both interesting and instructive. Institute adjourned at 4 o'clock to meet at 8:30 Thursday morning.

HE DOESN'T LIKE THIS CHECK.

Remittance of a Bankrupt's Assets That Annoys a Chicago Cashier.

"Funny things occur occasionally under the operation of the Federal bankruptcy law," said the cashier of a Chicago concern as he looked at a check for two cents he had just received in the mail. "Here's one of them. This check for two cents is the firm's share of the assets of a defunct Indiana enterprise of which we were one of the creditors."

"What's funny about that?" inquired the man to whom the cashier was talking. "Well, there's several funny things about it," answered the cashier. "Perhaps I shouldn't say funny, either; they're aggravating. You will notice that this check for two cents is drawn on a country bank in Indiana. To get it cashed will cost us fifteen cents exchange, so there's a direct loss of thirteen cents to start with. Then the trustee who sent it had to pay two cents in mailing it, and we are expected to pay return postage on the receipt, making an outlay of nineteen cents against a credit of two cents. I've been juggling with figures a long time and been up against many queer propositions, but this stumps me. I don't know what to do with it."

"Why not tear the check up and throw away the pieces? You'll be money ahead."

"The firm would, you mean. But what about myself? Unless I get the check cashed I'll have to take two cents out of my own pocket to make my books balance, and I can't see any reason why I should use my own money for this purpose."

A CHARM FROM AN OLD GRAVE.

Negro Supposed to Have Got Off the Head of a Dead Man.

One of the most mysterious cases of negro superstition has just come to light near Adairsville, Ga. The grave of Godfrey Barnes, who has been buried for more than thirty years, was found opened and his right hand had been cut off, evidently by a negro for the purpose of obtaining the first joint of the middle finger as a charm. It was first thought the motive might have been robbery, as there were stories around to the effect that Barnes had been buried with a lot of money and jewelry. Relatives, however, say this was not the case.

Indeed, upon investigation the body seemed not to have been tampered with except in the cutting off of the hand. It was in a fairly good state of preservation, except that the flesh, of course, had withered away and crumbled to dust. The hand, however, was missing, and it is explained on the theory of the negro superstition that if a person carries always with him the first joint of the middle finger of a man who has been buried he will never be arrested, no matter what crime he may commit.

Circumstantial evidence points strongly toward a negro who has been loafing around Adairsville for some time. He borrowed a wrap recently from a friend for the purpose of attending to some work, as he said. When the wrap was returned it contained red mud. An examination shows it was practically the same as that found in the grave.

HAS PORTRAITS OF BEN FRANKLIN.

Dr. T. H. Bache of Philadelphia Owns a Fine Collection of Them.

Dr. Thomas Hewsen Bache of 233 South 13th street, Philadelphia, a lineal descendant of Benjamin Franklin in the fifth generation, has what is probably the most remarkable collection of Franklin portraits in the world. Altogether there are more than 100 prints and engravings and some original drawings in the collection, gathered in the course of years in many parts of this country and Europe.

Of all these many pictures the best portrait is believed to be a crayon study by Boissier, the French portrait painter, which Dr. Bache picked up in Paris in 1864. The likeness has a great deal of character and spirit in it, depicting the placid features of the philosopher in one of his habitual moods of reflection. The whole collection exhibits a wonderful variety of expression.

The most authentic likeness of Franklin, says the Philadelphia Record, is Houdon's bust, taken from a life cast of features, from which the many statues of the philosopher are modeled, and Martin's painting from life, a three-quarters portrait in oil, of which there are two copies in Philadelphia, executed by Washington Peale.

DAILY THOUGHT.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and cooler in central portion. Friday, fair and warmer.

We Kentuckians don't care how high corn goes, so it doesn't affect the juice.

What became of that request from the medical fraternity, drawn up several months ago, asking the council to erect a new city hospital?

The best thing that the city can do is to build a new city hospital somewhere in a central location, equip it with modern appliances and then if necessary accept the resignations of everybody connected with it.

Some of the Democrats, who are alarmed at the attitude of President Roosevelt on the trust question, now claim that he didn't "begin soon enough." He seems to have begun a little sooner than the Democrats, at any rate.

The American papers are as far ahead of the European papers as the Americans are far ahead of the Europeans in everything. The date of King Edward's coronation was known and published in New York before it was in London.

Any other city in the country, perhaps, would have voted enough money
to transport war trophies had the war department assigned them, as it has
on two different occasions to Paducah.
Perhaps the council is waiting for the cruiser Paducah to capture a few
when she is finished and some war
happens along.

The street car accident yesterday at a railroad crossing well illustrates the need of a flagman at the crossing.

There is a trade in summer
as well as in the fall or spring—not so much of it, to be sure, but trade there is,
and trade is what every advertiser wants. If there is not so much going during the heated term, then there is so much the greater reason why
dealers should advertise to catch what is going.

near the depot. It is one of the most dangerous places in the city, partly because so many trains, both freight and passenger, pass at all hours of the day and night, and partly because in many cases the view of the tracks is obstructed by trains of idle freight cars, making it doubly hazardous for street cars to cross. It is true that hundreds of cars have crossed since the extension to the depot was made, and this is the first accident to occur, but the danger is nevertheless there, and should be obviated.

Judge Sanders seldom has anything to say about municipal affairs, but when he does he usually says something worth being considered. Paducah's market house has been inadequate for several years past, and is getting worse every day. Under the present laws, the men who rent
benches inside can pile up the passage
with coops, boxes or barrels, and compel the people to walk on the outside entirely. There is nothing to prevent their obstructing the market as often as they choose, indicating that we need new market laws, as well as a new market. The council, if it has any interest in the people's welfare, should take up the matter at once. It may be able to do something, even if the tax levy is only $1.85.

The indifference of the city officials
to the sanitary condition of the city is provoking a great deal of comment, especially among some of the doctors.
In many parts of the city, both in the business section and suburbs, the gutters reek with filth from one week's end to the other. One citizen who called the attention of a sanitary officer
to the condition of a gutter that had been foul for over a week, was informed that he, the officer, could afford him and the other residents no relief, as the council had control of the gutters, and was responsible for their condition. This is probably correct, as although a gutter is often a public nuisance, there is no way to determine exactly who is responsible for it. Something, however, should be done, if it is only to have the gutters flushed. A prominent doctor is authority for the statement that there was never more sickness in Paducah
than there is now, and much of it developed within the past several days. A great deal depends on the sanitary condition of a city, and oftentimes the sanitary condition depends on such trivial things as the gutters. The city has plenty of men in its employ cleaning and graveling
about the city, and could well afford to spare enough to go over the town
and give the gutters a thorough flushing.

LIEUT. HICKMAN.

ORDERED TO MANILA TO STAND
TRIAL FOR CRUELTY TO THE NATIVES.

Manila, July 10—General Chaffee has ordered Lieut. Edward A. Hickman, of the First cavalry, to Manila,
for trial by court-martial on the charge
of alleged cruelty to natives of Tayabas province. The charges arise from the Gardner inquiry. It is claimed that Hickman ducked two natives in a stream in order to obtain information. He is further charged with having ducked a third native, who died
from maltreatment. The military officials say that proof of the latter charge is doubtful. The court-martial presided over by General William H. Bisbee, which is trying Captain James A.
Ryan, of the Fifteenth cavalry, on the charge of unnecessary severity to natives, will try Lieut. Hickman.

Mr. J. B. Alvey, the chief dispatcher of the I. C., Louisville division, will arrive in the city tonight on a short visit.

JIM PLEADED GUILTY.

BUT HE WASN'T GUILTY, HE INFORMED THE COURT
TODAY.

Jim Dusenberry, the white man held over from police court yesterday on a charge of stealing fifteen sets of hinges from J. W. Hudson, the contractor, was taken from the county jail this morning and presented to County Judge Lightfoot.

"Mr. Dusenberry, Judge Light-
foot," introduced Jailer Jones.
The warrant was read to the prisoner.

"Now," explained the court, "if you plead guilty you will be sentenced to jail and your sentence begins today.
If you plead not guilty, you can have no trial until September."

"Well," and the prisoner laughed
heartily, "to tell the you truth,
judge, I don't know no more about them hinges than you do. I don't know what to do, but I guess I'll plead guilty."

He was then sentenced to ninety days in the county jail. "And remember," admonished the court as the jailer led the prisoner out, "your treatment 'hinges' on your own conduct. Mr. Jailer, see that he is kept at hard labor. If the prisoner isn't able to do hard labor, send for the doctor and have him fixed up so he can do it."

"I used to give them thirty days,"
remarked the court after the crowd
had left, "but today I don't feel well,
and I thought I'd better make it ninety."

CURIOUS COINCIDENCE.

THE FATHER AND MOTHER IN EACH INSTANCE WERE COUSINS.

The marriage of Clarence Ferguson
and May P. Higgins, a Kentucky
couple, a few days ago, by Judge Liggett brought to light a curious coincidence. The name of the father of young Ferguson was Crave Ferguson and his mother's maiden name
was Annie Ferguson.

The young lady's father's name was William Higgins and her mother's maiden name was Mary Higgins.

This curious coincidence is accounted for by the fact that the father and mother of each couple were cousins.—

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolutions on the death of Mr.
Joseph Hofflich, adopted by Jansen
branch at its regular meeting July 7, 1902.

Whereas Almighty God in His divine wisdom has called from us our brother Joseph Hofflich, we the members of Jansen branch C. K. and L. of
A. bow in sorrowful submission to His holy will. Brother Hofflich was a charter member of our branch and was loyal and consistent in all his duties. We pray his years of patient suffering and submission have won
for him the crown of eternal life.

Therefore be it resolved that we tender to his afflicted parents, brothers and sisters our deepest sympathy
in their sorrow at the loss of one so
dear to them.

Resolved that a Requiem Mass be offered for the repose of his soul; that our charter for thirty days be draped
in mourning; that these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family of our deceased brother and a copy of the same furnished the press of the city and
journal of the order, and kind remembrance inscribed upon the minutes of

IF THEY LIKE EACH

OTHER, MR. FRANK NEWTON
AND NEW YORK LADY
WILL WED.

A marriage in a week will probably be the culmination of a short and romantic love affair of Mr. Frank Newton of near Fulton and a young lady of New York. The young lady from New York, whose name we could not learn, arrived in the city today,
and is a pretty woman. She accompanied Mr. Newton to the home of his mother this afternoon, will visit there about a week, and will be associated with Mr. Newton, and if mutual love springs up at the end of the week,
they will be married. Mr. Newton and the young lady met for the first time this morning. They have been corresponding for some time and exchanged photographs. If they find they don't really love each other, the young lady will return to New York
at the end of the week.—Fulton

CIRCUIT COURT

TWO SMALL JUDGMENTS WERE FILED TODAY.

There were only two judgments
filed in circuit court today and other than that nothing of importance was done.

In the case of R. C. Burrow against J. J. Bellington a suit dismissing the petition of the plaintiff was filed.

In the case of C. O. Walker against Sarah Hayes a judgment to the plaintiff was filed awarding him $388, with interest and ordering the sale of land
to settle the judgment.

In the case of Rosa Neigan against James Meigan the former judgment
was set aside and a new trial granted
with a continuance.

THE DAYS THAT

ARE DULL.

There is a fairly general inclination on the part of advertisers to "lie down and
quit" at the coming of warm days. Like the farmer, they are prone to look to set times
and seasons for their harvest.
Such proceeding is illogical and unreasonable. In the ordinary business of life it is an accepted maximum that exigencies and emergencies call for greatest effort. They succeed best who courageously
remove all barriers or who refuse to admit that any such things as barriers exist. It is true that certain seasons
show much greater activity
in trade than other seasons.
Times are dull after the Christmas holidays, and after Easter. This statement
scarcely is correct. One should say that more goods
are sold during the holidays,
in the spring and in the autumn. At all times of the year goods are in demand. It stands to reason that those who make greatest efforts to sell goods in the periods of least activity are sure to sell the most goods. It is not insisted that one should advertise as generously in July and August as in September and October. But it is within common sense and prudence
to suggest that it is well for one to do some advertising all
the year round.

ing a Boer after he had surrendered

Ignorance prompts her to suffer alone in silence,

RIVER GUNBOATS.

The relief force that Wolsley detached to march across the desert, and striking the Nile at Metemeh, ascend to rescue Gordon at Khartum, met some strange looking steamers when it reached the great river. They were little boats—say the records of these events of twenty years ago—built,
under Gordon's direction, of sun-
wood timbers two or three inches thick, and old boiler iron. There was a wooden fort on each forward
deck.

Gordon loaded these boats with soldiers and sent them down the river
to strengthen the advance of his coming countrymen. The boats made the trip successfully, past the beleaguering forces of the Mahdi. They were not pretty, but they were bullet-proof.
Of recent years almost as old looking craft have been devised to do "naval police duty" on the Nile and other rivers, and one of them, the "shallow draft gunboat" Teal, was tested on the Thames not long ago. She is the very latest of a flotilla built for the British government, and in reality is a raft constructed of a number of pontoons which can be put together in the water, not requiring the use of a dry dock.

The Teal is one hundred and sixty feet long, and her extreme breadth is twenty-four and a half feet. She is a flat-bottomed craft, her propellers—
which take the place of the old stern
wheel—being mounted in a groove
cut in the bottom. She is able, it is asserted, to travel fifteen miles an hour, burning wood fuel, to navigate the most tortuous rivers, carrying a load of forty tons on a draft of not more than twenty-seven inches, and to fight with two six-pounders and half a dozen Maxims, the whole of the machinery and fighting spaces being protected by rifle-proof plating.

Two of our own little gunboats, the Helena and Wilmington, fourteen hundred ton craft, mounting nineteen
and twenty guns respectively, draw
only nine feet of water—less than the draft of many vessels of two-thirds
their size—and have thus been available for much special service on the Asiatic station. But the Teal, which could navigate in less than three feet
of water, might have been a little more useful. And gunboats able to sail and fight in a good-sized puddle would have been very convenient things to have in China a few months ago.

METAL EGGS FOR COOLING DRINKS.

One of the oddest of recent inventions is a refrigerating egg, as it might be called. It is an ovoid capsule
of nickel-plated copper, about the size
and shape of a hen's egg, hollow and nearly filled with water. For use, it is frozen, so that its contents become
ice. If you have a glass of milk that is not cold enough, you do not like to put ice into it, because dilution with water spoils the beverage. But, if you have one of these eggs handy, you may drop it into the glass, and in a few moments the liquid is reduced to the desired temperature. In the same way you may cool your cup of coffee, if it is too hot, and the idea
is equally applicable to any other drink.

Many people nowadays are dis-
inclined to use ice in their drinking water, because it may contain germs.
All danger is avoided by dropping one of these metal eggs into one's tumbler.

The refrigerating egg is a little less than full of water, so as to allow for the slight expansion of the liquid in freezing; otherwise, of course, the capsule would burst. After being filled the capsule is sealed so perfectly
that no one can tell where the opening was, and thus it is absolutely water-tight.

Such an egg, of metal, it is said,
can hardly be broken, and ought to
last forever.

GOING AFTER A PRISONER.

U. S. Deputy Marshal George Sam-
unders has returned from Metropolis,
where he went yesterday on business.
Tonight he will go to Mayfield and will probably return with a prisoner,
as he has a warrant that has been waiting for a good opportunity to be served.

CURRENT POEMS.

After the Fourth of July.
We put him to bed in his little night-
gown.
The worst battered youngster there was
in the town;
Yet he said as he opened his only well
eyes:
"Hah, 'rah, for the jolly old Fourth of July!"

Two thumbs and eight fingers with him
were tied up.
On his head was a bump like an upalde-
down cup.
And his smile was distorted, his nose all
scurry.
From the joys of the glorious Fourth of July.

We were glad; he had started abroad
with the sun.
And all day he had lived in the powder
and fun;
While the boom of the cannon roared up
to the sky.
To salute young America's Fourth of July.

I said we were glad, all the piece were
there,
As we plastered and bound them with tenderest care.
But out of the wreck came the words,
with a sigh:
"If to-morrow was only the Fourth of July!"

His will grow all together again, never fear.
And be ready to celebrate freedom next
year.
Meanwhile all his friends are most thankful there lies
A crackleless twelve-month twist Fourth of July.

We kissed him good-night on his powder-
speckled face.
We laid his bruised hands softly down in
their place.
And he murmured, as sleep closed his one
open eye:
"I wish every day was the Fourth of July!"

—M. Phelps Dawson, in N. Y. Ledger.

Reat.
As when a weary child would take his
rest,
Dad done, and she who loves him very near,
"Give me your hand, I'm tired, mother
dear."
In sweet confidence, his hand soft
press
In her, love-sheltered from the day's unrest
And gathering clouds of night, he feels
no fear
But sinks to sleep, content that she is here
Whose presence is to him the loveliest.

And so may I, when down life's winding
way
Paint with the world's a-weal, besprent
and worn,
Lift up my heart to God, and trusting
say,
Knowing that all our sorrows Christ
hath borne
"Hold Thou my hand, dear Father, I am lured."
And find the rest—sweet rest—so long desired.
—Hattie L. Smith, in Baptist Union.

A Song of Progress.
How fast the old world moves along,
with science as its guide!
(John! fire up the carriage—I am going for a ride!)
In darkest space it leaves a rare, illuminated path.
(Bring in six yards of lightning for a quick electric bath!)

How various its inventions! They dash
sense and sight!
(John! cable there to London for a dinner Wednesday night.)
How swift the march of science—though
perishable may laugh:
(Here's a Mollie's picture painted by the new teleautograph!)

It's "Forward! March!" forever—the great, progressive plan!
(I see that they've put life in that electricated man!)
It's "Forward! March!" forever—in spite
of bolts and bars:
(I think I'll strike that stretch for a trip around the stars!)

—F. L. Stanton, in Atlanta Constitution.

Isolated Greatness.
The man who never makes mistakes,
He is the creature who awakes
The soul to scorn, the brow to frown
With wrath no charity can drown.
Men sound his praise with zeal intense
And bid us heed his excellence.
But none the less, when he comes 'round,
Discomfort seems to reign profound.
For how can he, so coldly wise,
Extend a hand and sympathize
With simple, struggling, mortal men,
Who rise and fall and rise again?
How can his heart responsive beat
To that renewed mood complete
Of those who feel they cannot be,
Strive though they may, as good as he?
He knows just how to win the strife,
He knows all things in human life,
Saves to forgive the struggling men
Who grope and stumble now and then.
He'd rather be a dull machine
And clank and clank in a routine
Of duty until something breaks
Than be who never makes mistakes.
—Washington Star.

At the Play.
She took the seat in front of me;
Alas, I gave a sigh.
For looming up I saw a hat
At least twelve inches high.

I could not see the stage at all,
So gave a little cough;
It was enough; she took the hint,
Alas the bonnet off.

I gave a smile, one little smile,
And then dumfounded sat.
For coiled upon her head the hair
Was higher than her hat.
—Yonkers Statesman.

Spring Twilight.
All the world is softly tinted
By a new light flooding all,
As the sunset colors glowing,
Drift to where the shadows fall.
Through the woodland comes a murmur
Of a brooklet flowing free,
While a tender note is floating
From some far-off leafy tree.
All the world seems full of gladness,
Beauty, verdure, hope and life,
As the hours of twilight, drifting,
Bring the Spring with sweetest rife.
—Louise Lewin Matikawa, in Boston Budget.

Healthy Old People

say the main thing to do is to keep the stomach, liver and bowels in order if you want to keep well and live long. Good physicians say the same thing, too. The remedy called

RIPANS TABULES

while not mysterious or miraculous in its curative qualities, is a simple formula prescribed by the best physicians for disorders
of the digestive organs. Just little Tabules,
easy to take, easy to buy and quick to act.
If your trouble is Dyspepsia, B'liousness,
Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Heartburn, and the like, no need of calling a physician. Ripans Tabules contain exactly what he would tell you to take.
Permanent cure follows a fair trial. No
uncertainty about it.

ONE GIVES RELIEF.

There is scarcely any condition of ill health that is not benefited by the use of one of the R. P. A. S. Tabules, and the price, ten for five cents, does not cost from any loss of quality. It is in the nature of a safety valve, and a family bottle containing the tablets is sold for $1.00. For a free trial, the above-mentioned price, $1.00, is recommended. For sale by druggists.

WITH THE THEATERS.

At La Belle Park Theatre last night a fair sized audience was well pleased with "Too Much Smith," and the accompanying specialties. Tonight the offering is "My Uncle from Japan." This play was given at La Belle during the first week of the season, and proved a highly entertaining and pleasing performance, but as the company, as now constituted, is much stronger than at the opening of the season, a still better production can be looked for.

There will be a strong vaudeville in connection, Little Garna, Miss Phelps and Mr. Howard being the headliners, and the usual good music will embellish the bill. "My Uncle from Japan" will be played the rest of this week, including the usual Saturday matinee. Miss Phelps of La Belle Park Theatre was complimented with a handsome floral offering during the performance last night.

There was an appreciative audience last night at The Kentucky to witness "Josh Whitcomb," and the play as well as specialties was fine. Miss Gale, owing to illness, did not appear, and will probably not appear in Paducah again this season, which her many friends will regret to learn. Tonight there will be a new bill, the favorite, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

Miss Marie La Tour of the La Belle Park Stock, leaves Saturday for Indianapolis, and from there goes to New York to take an engagement for the winter.

VICTIMS IMPROVING.

Motorman Etter Says the Car Had Stopped at the Crossing.

Street Car Officials Say the Car Did Not Run into the Train.

Motorman Ed Etter and the two young ladies, Misses Mertz, of St. Louis, and Ledbetter, of Elizabethtown, Ill., who were hurt in yesterday's street car accident, are reported doing well today, and their injuries, as stated yesterday, were not serious.

Those in a position to know say that no blame can be attached to the motorman. He claims he stopped the car before the crossing was reached, as is required by the street car company at all times from all motormen, and the accident was unavoidable. The passengers are convinced that no motorman would intentionally allow a train to hit his car.

In regard to the assertion that the car ran into the train, instead of the train running into the car, Superintendent Gus Thompson stated that the condition of the car shows that the pilot of the engine struck it. The lower part is wrecked where the pilot of the engine struck the bumper of the car.

Electrician Dan Simon made the same statement. He said that if the car had run into the train, the top of the vestibule as well as the lower part would have been wrecked.

Superintendent Thompson stated that Mr. Lon Davis, who was on the car, stated to him yesterday that he thought the car stopped before the crossing was reached.

Motorman Etter stated positively this morning that he not only stopped the car, but had it reversed, and it was backing at the time the train struck it, as the condition of the motor box and switch key indicated afterwards.

The train crew state that they could not see the car, and are confident that the motorman could not see them.

Mr. Lon Davis stated today that he never said at any time that the car never stopped, nor that any one was to blame for the accident, because he didn't know who was to blame. He states that he does not remember for certain whether the car stopped or not, but is of the opinion that it did.

He made this statement in the presence of several persons yesterday, as well as today.

The following statement was made and signed today by Mr. Lon Davis, who was aboard the car at the time of the accident, and is on file in this office:

"I made substantially the statements about the accident quoted in the afternoon papers of Wednesday, with the exception that I do not remember saying that the car stopped. The string of freight cars were in the way so the approaching train could not be seen. The statements credited to me in the Register of July 10 saying that I said the car 'did not stop' I did not make.

LON DAVIS."

MINERS PREVENTED

Illinois Central Had Trouble in Getting Section Hands.

The Men Assembled at Central City But Did Not Go to Chicago.

The Illinois Central, from reports which reached the city today, had considerable difficulty at Central City, Tuesday night in trying to ship a lot of section hands to Chicago to take the places of strikers. Miners interfered and the railroad company failed to get their men to go.

In order to help out the local freight depots at Chicago which were crippled on account of the freight handlers' strike the Illinois Central telegraphed all along the system to load section men and send them to Chicago immediately. The section men did not know what they were being sent away for, and when they were assembled at Central City they were advised to stay at home by the miners, who had been informed of the strike. Several fights resulted between the railroad authorities who were trying to induce the men to go to Chicago and the miners. The latter were victorious and succeeded in preventing the shipment of the section hands.

FRIDAY NIGHT.

BIG FEATURE AND SURPRISES AT THE KENTUCKY.

The English Stock company, which closes its summer engagement at The Kentucky next Saturday night, July 12th, will on Friday night present a mammoth farce comedy and vaudeville bill. Three big farces will be presented, namely: "Dr. Sawbones," "Robbing a Pawnshop" and "Dutch Justice." Between these comedies the entire company will be seen in strong vaudeville acts.

Those who have seen Mr. James in many different roles may find it doubly interesting to learn that he will be seen in two different farce comedy roles Friday night. He will appear as the tramp in "Robbing a Pawnshop" and also as the Dutch judge in "Dutch Justice." Mr. James also promises to do a vaudeville specialty. Friday night's bill will be a strong one, and will certainly amuse all fan-loving people.
